Founding & leadership

Now	Founder Kliniq	• Apr 2026 - present · Odense, Denmark
	A free study platform for medical students at kliniq.dk . Built together with Christian Y. Wu since September 2026, who leads tech and business. I lead content and medical quality.
	Turned past exam sets from SDU and the University of Bergen into more than 23,000 interactive questions across 23 modules.

- Every explanation teaches the principle behind the answer and is checked against the official answer key.
- Every error report from users is traced to its source before anything is changed.
- Built preparation material for clinical placements, and host Anki decks for every SDU module (by Masi Saffi).
- Expanding to more universities through student ambassadors.
